

Aztecs

By: Sage, Braydon, and Pehtan

Religious Beliefs, Ruler, Geographical feature(s), Daily Life, Trade, Location, Schools, and Landscape.

Location- The Aztecs covered the modern day Valley of Mexico.

Religion- They believed that the gods sacrificed themselves to make the colony, and sacrificed 18 people a year(usually prisoners that had been captured).

The geographical feature was a lake.

Schools- The schools in the Aztec Empire was not like schools we have today.

The Aztecs went to military school, and learned moral instructions

Ruler- The ruler of the Aztec empire was Moctezuma the second.

Trade- The Aztecs traded cloth, garden produce, knives, tools, leather, furs, and animal skin.

Daily Life- The Aztecs made beautiful art.

Landscape- The Aztecs had canals, that they used for roads.

When the Europeans Arrived

Hernan Cortes was a spanish conquistador that came from spain, he arrived February 18th 1519 in mexico.

Moctezuma II Thought he was a god in human form.

Cortez formed alliances.

Aztecs kicked spanish from Teotitlan.

Results

A massive outbreak of smallpox killed over half the population of Aztecs.

In 1521 Cortes destroyed Aztecs land, which resulted in the end of the Aztecs empire.

