

Incas

By: Danny, Allison, and Aaron

Location

The Inca territory covered most of present day most of peru and parts of Colombia, Ecuador, Bolivia, Chile, and Argentina would lie outside of the border.

The Incas grew their empire and map by promising land and riches

Leader

Their leader was Pachacuti-Cusi Yupanqui. This name meant Earth Shaker. Once he was leader he started to take over nearby tribes. The leader of the Inca tribe was called the Sapa Inca believed to be the son of the Sun God.

Daily Life

They lived in rural in windowless huts and worked most walking

Hours. The inca empire depended on them and inca where great farms.

They grew their empire food. The go to school

Religious beliefs

The Incas were a spiritual group. They worshiped the Sapa Inca who they believed was the living son of Inti, the sun god. The Sapa Inca therefore was the king of the Incas.

Schools

Inca schools were established in the thirteenth century. The people that taught in these schools were philosophers, amautas, and poets. Amautas are people known as the “The wise ones”, or “Master”.

Europeans Arrive

Francisco Pizarro arrived at the Inca Tribe in 1532 seeking riches. Some Incas had met Europeans before and later died of diseases. At the time the Incas were weak from a civil war between brothers. Pizarro manipulated the two sides eventually defeating both.

Tardes\and gods

The incas did not have a form of money and mostly

Trade using supplies mostly textiles items .

They have wove long distance trade .They did not have money

The did not need money They have story

City/ Landscape

Roads: The incas didn't have many roads. But they had a main road called the Royal Road. Royal Road was made out of jigsaw looking pieces of stone. Royal road was a great achievement for the incas.

*Buildings:
Machu Picchu was a popular city and still is known worldwide. It was a ancient temple and is used for a vacation resort for emperors. Now it is a tourist attraction that is filled with inca skeletons in Peru.*