

5th Grade Spice Market Sale

Participation is Optional

WHAT: 5th Grade Spice Market Bake Sale - Other 5th grade classes are able to purchase goods during this week as well!

WHEN: Week of October 28th to November 1st (Please see below for specific dates)

WHERE: CCS 500 Building, 2nd Floor

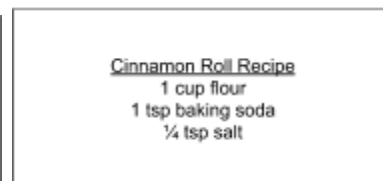

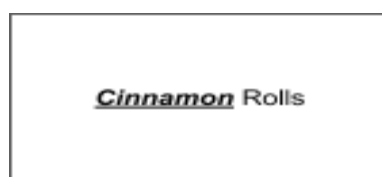

WHY: We learned in Social Studies class how spices led to world exploration in the 1400s. This activity extends what we learned in class to a fun activity.

NOTE: Participation is voluntary and no grades will be given. All money raised will help to off-set costs for future 5th-grade activities.

Additional Details

- On your class's day, bring in something you've made (or purchased) that contains your assigned spice from your social studies project
- Suggested amount to make: one "batch" of your recipe; a class set of 30 or so is fine as well
- Bring in your item already divided and wrapped in individual servings.
- Please note: Refrigeration and heating will not be available.
- Include one index card for your item that has the name of the item and the name of your spice on one side and the ingredients listed on the other side or a copy of the recipe.

EXAMPLE:

- Your homeroom teacher will determine the price for which your individual servings will sell. Most items start at 25 cents.
